In addition to previously announced activities aboard the voyage, such as "Quickfire" challenges, "Dining in the Dark" experiences, behind-the-scenes kitchen tours, Q&A sessions with the judges, Masters and chef'testants and dance parties with DJ and Top Chef Master Hubert Keller, guests can also play Ping-Pong with Spike, jet ski with Casey, try their luck at poker with Hosea and Mike or attend a mixology class with Yigit. Still hungry? Guests can also sign up for cooking sessions with their favorite chefs –such as Kristen, Mike and Paul and attempt to create Top Chef-worthy dishes or sit back and watch the pro's as Tom and Gail perform cooking demonstrations.

Last fall, Bravo Media, Celebrity Cruises, Magical Elves and Rose Tours announced the inaugural launch of "Top Chef: The Cruise" aboard the modern, luxurious Celebrity Constellation. Taking place from April 11-15, 2013, the one-of-a-kind culinary vacation experience invites fans of the Emmy-winning "Top Chef" reality competition series the chance to break bread and rub elbows with the show's judges and chefs.

The culinary journey aboard Celebrity Constellation sails round-trip from Miami, Florida, with stops in Key West, Florida and Cozumel, Mexico. Staterooms are on sale at www.topchefthecruise.com. Additional information can also be found at the site.
